

Government of Tripura

Directorate of Information & Cultural Affairs

S-10102

Chailengta, 24th February, 2022

e-Seva Kendra inaugurated in Chailengta

Under the aegis of Tripura High Court and with the initiative of Sub-Divisional Level Legal Services Authority, a ceremonial programme of e-Seva Kendra was held at the office premise of Longtharai Valley Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate cum Civil Judge (Junior Division) in Chailengta today. The e-Seva Kendra was inaugurated by Tripura High Court Justice and Chairman of Computer Committee Subhashish Talapatra in presence of Justice ArindhamLodh.

JusticeSubhashish Talapatra said, e-Seva Kendra is another initiative by the Supreme Court of India progressing towards a paperless and digitalized judicial system. This service centre shall be functional under the guidance of system assistant for providing public services through e-filing and analysis of National Judicial Data Grid and vice versa. He mentioned this centre to be a milestone beginning from Longtharai Valley, and this service can also be extended through audio-visual conferencing which will help coordinate and support the Legal Services Committees for better judicial service.

Justice ArindhamLodh in the inaugural programme said, e-Seva Kendra is another privilege and a platform for strengthening the public faith towards the Legal Services authorities and relevant sources in the long run. Others present in the programme were Additional District & Sessions Judge of Dhalai district, Jawaharnagar, Angshuman Choudhury, Longtharai Valley SDM Amartya Barman, SDPO RatnaSadhan Noatia, members of Sub-Divisional Level Legal Services Committee, judicial staffs and officials of various line departments. Welcome speech was delivered by Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate Ramanuj Bhattacharjee and Vote of Thanks was deliveredJudicial Magistrate of Longtharai Valley Abhijit Adhikari.
