

to protest for it. Development is continued in each state of the North Eastern region with the direction and sincereness of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Plans are there to distribute 70 thousand houses under PMAY scheme within April this year.

The Chief Minister also said, because of decentralizing of health services, each ASHA workers are working with dedication in every part of the state. He hoped that the ASHA workers will take special role in spreading awareness among the citizens about central and state government schemes. Principal Secretary of Health department J. K Sinha said, the state government is working prioritising to provide improved health services in every area of the state. Different positive initiatives have been taken such as Sustha Shaishab, Sustha Koishor giving priority to the health safety of children. Various initiatives are successfully being implemented across the state to provide opportunities for necessary vaccination with specific period of time. Others present in the programme were Director of National Health Mission Sidharth Shiv Jaiswal, Director of Family Welfare and Preventive Medicines Dr. Radha Debbarma, Director of Health department Dr. Subhashish Debbarma, and Director of School Education department Chandni Chandran.
