ICA Minister inaugurated cultural workshop

No society can survive without culture: ICA Minister

No society can survive without culture. Society is beautiful because there is culture, enunciated Information & Cultural Affairs Minister Sushanta Choudhury after inaugurating a cultural workshop organised by Nirmala Cultural Society in association with Information & Cultural Affairs department at Dakhineswari Auditorium, Renters Colony in Sadar Subdivision yesterday. ICA Minister said, social degradation is observed at different times. In the course of time, the government as well as various cultural organizations have taken initiative to lead the society in the right direction. If the children can develop cultural mind set through children's fair, they will in future beautify the family, country and society. The Minister lauded Nirmala Cultural Society for being involved in various social and cultural activities at different times. He said, everyone has to have a cultural mind set. Only then will society be inspired through their actions. Welcome speech was delivered by Secretary of Nirmala Cultural Society Utpala Mukherjee. The programme was presided over by prominent writer Dr. Ashish Kumar Baidya.
