ICA Minister attends a blood donation camp organized by NSS unit in Jirania
NSS workers have to establish themselves in the society as decent individuals: ICA
Minister

NSS workers have to establish themselves in the society as decent individuals, said Information & Cultural Affairs Minister Sushanta Choudhury in a blood donation camp organized by NSS Unit at Sanghati Vidyamandir Higher Secondary School located in Sachindranagar, Jirania yesterday. He said, there is need for 1 unit of blood in every 2 seconds in the country. Daily demand for blood is about 38 thousand units of blood. There is a huge demand for blood, which is why blood donation must be continued. He said, the main objective of NSS is service to humanity. NSS workers are involved in various social welfare activities. Their role is seen even in disaster management activities.

A 7-day program is being organized by the NSS Unit at the school. Welcome speech was delivered by NSS Program Officer Dilip Shil. Others present at the event were Chairperson of Jirania Nagar Panchayat Ratan Kumar Das, Vice-Chairman of Jirania Panchayat Samiti Pritam Debnath, Chairman of School Management Committee Rabi Ranjan Chakraborty and Headmaster of the school Jawaharlal Sarkar.
