Mega Legal Services Camp to be held on April 3 in Bokafa block

In an attempt to deliver easy access of legal services to communities residing under Bokafa RD Block of Santirbazar Sub-Division, a Mega Legal Services Camp will be held on April 3, 2022 at Bokafa Ashram English Medium Higher Secondary School. The camp will be organized by South Tripura District Legal Services Authority. This was informed by District Secretary Sushanta Debbarma in a meeting held recently.

The main objective of this program is generating public awareness especially the marginalized sections of the society on concept of free legal aid. Public are also informed about various welfare schemes of the government. During the event, awareness on child helpline, free health check-up, schemes and benefits under social welfare, free distribution of pamphlets on legal services, free health check-up on animals, and free legal counselling and making of free documents etc., will be done.

Stalls of various departments will be set up in the camp such as Fire Department, Health Department, Employment Office, Labour, Food & Civil Supply, Agriculture & Horticulture, ICDS, and Education Department as well as of District Legal Services Authority.
