

Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee was an exceptional and memorable personality: Scheduled Caste Welfare Minister

The present Central and State government in their work are respecting the ideals of Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee. The contribution of Bharat Keshari Dr. Mukherjee in preserving and protecting India's integrity, culture and unity is undeniable. The Information and Cultural Affairs Office of Kumarghat Sub-division has initiated celebration of the birth anniversary of Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee at the Nazrul Kalakendra in Fatikroy on 6 July where Scheduled Caste Welfare Minister Sudhangshu Das said this while inaugurating the program. The program was presided over by Kumarghat Panchayat Samiti Chairperson, Sumati Das. On the occasion of birth anniversary of Bharat Kesari, Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee, a discussion session and patriotic song dance performances were organised.

In the event, Minister Sudhangshu Das stated in his speech that birth and death are eternal events. But in the society, few exceptional persons are born who are valuably remembered. Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee was one such extraordinary and significant personality. He added that Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee served throughout his life in helping the oppressed and helpless people. In West Bengal, during the famine epidemic, in that hour of need, Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee formed a relief committee for providing relief to the helpless people. He was totally against the division of nation on the basis of religion. He opposed Article 370 of Kashmir too. According to his ideal the present central government diminished the Article 370 forever. He welcomed each and every individual to follow the ideals and thoughts of Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee in developing the nation.

The Chief guest, Amalendu Das, Chairperson of Unakoti Zilla Parishad said, Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherjee was a great personality of our India's freedom movement. His main slogan was One nation, one emblem, one constitution. In the event a retired teacher Jadulal Roy and Social Worker Nilkanta Sinha also shared their insights. Members of Kumarghat Panchayat Samiti Subhendu Das, Prakash Banik and Shivendu Ghosh, DCM Subhankar Sen, Social Worker Tarun Kr. Das, Manoj Pal Chowdhuri and others were also present.
