Assistance to 34 Fish farmers at Jirania

In an effort to support and expand fish farming in the Jirania sub-division, the Department of Fisheries has provided significant assistance to 34 fish farmers during the current financial year. Under the annual fisheries development plan, mixed fish fry species have been distributed among these farmers, with a total investment of ₹2,17,600. This initiative aims to bring approximately 2.72 hectares of water bodies in Jirania under mixed fisheries. The programme supports 8 fish farmers each in the blocks of Old Agartala, Mandai, and Jirania, while 6 fish farmers in the Belbari block and 2 fish farmers each in the Ranirbazar Municipality area and Jirania Nagar Panchayat area will also benefit from the distribution.
