Press Release

Hon'ble Chief Minister Shri Biplab Kumar Deb attended various programs during his visit to Nagpur, Maharashtra today.

Hon'ble CM visited Deekshabhoomi, the revered Buddhist site and an iconic tourism destination of Maharashtra during the visit here. He also paid tributes to Father of the Indian Constitution, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar here by garlanding his statue located in the precincts of this site.

Hon'ble Chief Minister, Shri Biplab Kumar Deb then visited the NEERI Campus, one of the foremost scientific research institutes of the country. Hon'ble CM held extensive discussions during his visit here with several scientists on a wide range of issues regarding conservation of environment. Special thrust during the discussions held here was laid on ensuring the attainment of various goals under the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in Tripura.

Later in the evening, Hon'ble CM also visited the Devi Ahalyabai Smarak Samiti Girls Hostel and held an interactive discussion with female students from different states of North East India. Shri Biplab Kumar Deb elaborated on the extensive efforts made by Central Government under leadership of PM Shri Narendra Modi and various state Governments of North Eastern states to make North-East India as the 'Ashtalaxmi' of India.
