Nazrul Jayanti observed in Agartala

The next generation needs to take inspiration from the thought process of Nazrul: ICA Minister

We are all aware of the contributions made by Kabi Kazi Nazrul Islam to Bengali literature of both India and Bangladesh. We must take our literature and culture based on the ideals of Kazi Nazrul Islam. The next generation also needs to take inspiration from the thought process of Nazrul, stated Information & Cultural Affairs Minister Sushanta Choudhury while interacting with the media in a programme organized on the occasion of the birth anniversary of Kabi Kazi Nazrul Islam at Nazrul Kalakhetra organized by Information & Cultural Affairs department yesterday. Other dignitaries present during the programme were Mayor of Agartala Municipal Corporation Dipak Majumdar, Chairman of Tripura State Higher Education Council Dr. Arunoday Saha, Chairman of Tripura Tea Development Corporation Limited Santosh Saha, Secretary of Information & Cultural Affairs department Dr. P. K. Goyal and Director Ratan Biswas. In the beginning of the programme, the guests paid floral tribute to the statue of Kabi Kazi Nazrul Islam.

ICA Minister Sushanta Choudhury also said, it is impossible to express one's thoughts without culture and literature. This is why with the initiative of the government; birth anniversary of Rabindra and Nazrul are celebrated every year so that the new generation may move ahead in the direction that has been showed through their literatures for expression of thoughts. He expressed that when one is inspired with Nazrul ideals, then it will be possible to build a patriotic and brotherhood filled society, which will be helpful to take the entire nation ahead in future. ICA Minister called everyone to bring forth the good sides of the society. Officials of ICA department were present during the programme.
