Elephant camp inaugurated in Mungiakami

An elephant camp has been inaugurated in Mungiakami block area to solve the problem of menace caused by the wild elephants in Teliamura sub-division. After unveiling the board of the camp, Chief Whip Kalyani Roy said, the menace caused by the wild elephants has been a long-standing problem in Teliamura sub-division. Due to deforestation, a herd of wild elephants often wanders around the area in search of food.

To relieve the people of the sub-division, the Forest department has brought some tamed elephants from Sepahijala sanctuary to this camp. With the help of these, the wild elephants will be driven away. She hoped that this initiative will greatly be beneficial to the people and will play a special role in saving and conservation of the elephants as well. Others present during the inaugural programme were Sabhadhipati of Khowai Zilla Parishad Joydeb Debbarma, Mungiakami BAC Chairman Sunil Debbarma, PCCF of Forest department D. K. Sharma, District Forest Officer Jeya Ragul Geshan B.
