A sanitary napkin production centre inaugurated in Chandranagar GP

A sanitary napkin production centre was inaugurated in Chandranagar Gram Panchayat through Bishnumata Self-Help Village Federation in Bishalgarh block on May 28. This centre has been constructed at the cost of 8 lakh rupees under Tripura Livelihood Mission. The centre was inaugurated by Sabhadhipati of Sepahijala Zilla Parishad Supriya Das Datta. She said, the government has been working towards making the women Self-Help Groups of the state self-sufficient from the start. The ultimate goal of the state government is to make women financially self-dependent. If the rural women are self-reliant, only then the state will further develop. Sepahijala District Magistrate & Collector Vishwasree B. said, the SHGs of the district have achieved success in various fields in the last 3 to 4 years. The role of these SHGs is extremely important for women empowerment.

Other dignitaries present in the inaugural programme were President of Social Justice Standing Committee of Sepahijala Zilla Parishad Santa Das, ADM Soumitra Gangopadhyay, Bishalgarh Block BDO Amit Karmakar and social worker Sushanta Deb. An agreement was signed between Bishnumata Self-Help Group Village Federation and Jolaibari Women Cluster-Level Federation of South Tripura regarding exchange of the goods or products. The programme was presided over by Chandranagar Gram Panchayat Pradhan Priya Bhowmik.
