Adventure sports to start in Neermahal and Jampuihill

The Tourism department has taken steps to introduce Paragliding in Jampuihill and Paramotoring in Neermahal within this month, stated Managing Director of Tripura Tourism Development Corporation Tarit Kanti Chakma while talkinh to the media while conducting a Paramotoring test run at Khumulwng Stadium yesterday. He further said that this initiative has been taken to make these two tourist destinations of the state more attractive to the tourists. The test run was made at Khumulwng Stadium as the land next to Neermahal is now unsuitable for Paramotoring. He said, two Paramotors have been brought from Europe, each costing about 12 lakh rupees. Biplab Das of Melaghar and Nazrul Islam of Sonamura have been trained at Gurgaon for three months for Paramotoring. He added that one pilot and one passenger can fit in Paragliding and Paramotoring. Joint Director of Tourism department Dilip Kumar Debbarma, Assistant Director Mrinal Kanti Das and others were present during the test run.
