Inauguration of Sepahijala District De-addiction Centre

To build a drug-free Tripura, Sepahijala District De-addiction Centre has been set up at the Sports Hostel near Kalamchoura Police Station under the Boxanagar area of Sepahijala District. On 20th August 2025, at a programme held at the Boxanagar Samar Smriti Auditorium, this centre approved by the Government of India and operated by Aria Youth Centre was officially inaugurated by the Deputy Speaker of the State Legislative Assembly, Ramprasad Pal.

In his address, he said that both the Central and State governments have called for creating a drug-free society and a drug-free Tripura, and in response to that call, everyone must come forward and raise their voices against drugs to safeguard society. Speaking on the occasion, MLA Tafazzal Hossain stated that setting up the Sepahijala District De-addiction Centre at Boxanagar will be particularly beneficial for the youth of the area. In her speech, Dalia Singh, State Convenor of Aria Youth Seva Centre, appealed to the local people to extend full cooperation in keeping the newly established de-addiction centre at Boxanagar functional and well-managed. Other guests present at the programme included Pusesh Atriya, National President of Aria Youth Centre; Sanjib Pal, BDO of Boxanagar Block; District-level officials; all members of Boxanagar Panchayat Samiti and local residents.
