Labour Minister inaugurates an exhibition of products made by different SHGs in Gouranagar block

The SHGs are playing an important role in the economic development of the rural areas: Labour Minister

An exhibition of products made by different Self-Help Groups was organized at the premises of Gouranagar Block Office on June 11 with the initiative of Tripura Rural Livelihood Mission of Gouranagar Block Division. Labour Minister Bhagaban Chandra Das inaugurated the exhibition. An interaction program was also organized on the same day. Labour Minister after inaugurating the exhibition and the interaction program, said, the SHGs are playing an important role in the economic development of the rural areas. Women are taking up roles through the SHGs, which is why the government has prioritized increasing ways of income for women. The Minister then visited various stalls in the exhibition and interacted with the staffs of the stalls.

Other dignitaries present along with the Labour Minister were Sabhadhipati of Unakoti Zilla Parishad Amalendu Das, Sahakari Sabhadhipati Shyamal Das, Vice Chairman of Gouranagar Panchayat Samiti Shib Shankar Adhikari and Block BDO Rameshwar Bhattacharjee. Welcome speech was delivered by DM Uttam Kumar Chakma. The programme was presided over by Chairman of Gouranagar Panchayat Samiti Naran Singh. Total 16 SHGs took part in the exhibition.
