This year also Tripura will take part in the Republic Day tableau rally in New Delhi. A total of 26 tableaus will be on display this time. These tableaus will be the platform for cultural presentation by the central government and state governments. Tableaus will come from various departments and states comprising the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Ministry of Tribal Affairs, Goa, Uttarakhand, Haryana, Jharkhand, Ministry of Women and Child Development, Gujarat, Andhra Pradesh, Punjab, Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, Ministry of Rural Development, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Financial Services department, Madhya Pradesh, Ministry of Earth Science (IMD), Ministry of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Tripura, Karnatak, Dadra Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu, Delhi, West Bengal, Chandigarh, Ministry of Culture and CPWD. Tripura's tableau will come at the 19 serial number.

The theme of Tripura's tableau this time is cultural diversity of India. In consistence with this, Kharchi Puja and the rituals attached to the worship 14 royal deities and their significance will be showcased in the tableau of Tripura. Three main aspects have been focused in the tableau. Firstly it is a blend of tradition and modernity. Symbolising progress, bamboo designs and frames, application of technology, models in traditional attire etc. will be on display on the tableau. Secondly, 14 deities will be presented through bamboo and cane craftsmanship. Thirdly, the tableau will house worship of Ha-Buma (earth mother) and cultural presentation. Additionally there will be aesthetical presentation of bamboo and flower made designs with blend of modern artistic spirit. The priest will also be seen performing rituals in traditional attire. At the same time ancient spirituality of Tripura will find expression on the tableau.
