Offices & educational institutions to remain Closed on 23rd June for bye-Election

The general administration department of the state government has informed that on June 23rd, 2022 (Thursday) bye-poll to 6-Agartala, 8-Town Bardowali, 48-Surma (SC) and 57-Yubrajnagar assembly constituencies will be held. All government offices, courts, educational institutions, financial institutions and other institutions in these four constituencies will be closed for voters to cast their votes in the bye-election.

Employees of various industries in these four assembly constituencies, employees of other organizations under the state government and employees of the business centres will get paid leave on that day to exercise their voting right.

Government employees who are voters in these four constituencies but are working outside these constituencies will get special casual leave to exercise their voting right. The same is applicable for casual or daily wage labourers. The workers will get paid leave to exercise their voting right.

If the absence of a voter causes danger or harm to his work, the directive will not be effective, the general administration said in a statement.
