Tripura Shines on International Literacy Day

On 8th September 2025, the world celebrated International Literacy Day, and at the Dr. Ambedkar International Centre, New Delhi, the national celebration turned into a proud moment for Tripura.

The event, organised by the Department of School Education & Literacy, Ministry of Education, was graced by Jayant Chaudhary, Minister of State for Education and Minister of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship (I/C), as Chief Guest. The theme of this year's celebration was "Promoting Literacy in the Digital Era through ULLAS."

A highlight of the programme was the 'Thematic Session' where four leading states and UTs shared their journeys towards full literacy. Raval H. Kumar, Special Secretary, School Education Department, Government of Tripura, made a well-received presentation showcasing Tripura's remarkable path to becoming a Fully Literate State.

The programme was attended by Kishor Barman, Minister of Higher Education & Panchayat, Government of Tripura, and Vanlalhlana, Minister of Education, Government of Mizoram. Both leaders shared their experiences, while Tripura's Minister's speech drew particular praise.

Dignitaries, including senior officials from the Ministry of Education, lauded Tripura's achievements and recognised the state as a frontrunner in implementing NEP 2020. Adding further depth to the celebration, newly literate learners and volunteers from different states shared moving accounts of their journeys.

For Tripura, the day was not just a celebration but a milestone, marking its emergence as a symbol of resilience, achievement, and inspiration for the entire nation. This was informed by the Directorate of Secondary Education through a press release.
