

Government is working towards making women self-reliant: Industries Minister

Prime Minister, Narendra Modi launched the 'Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar Abhiyan' yesterday and addressed the gathering from Dhar district of Madhya Pradesh. On this occasion, the Minister of Industries and Commerce, Santana Chakma, formally launched this program in North Tripura district as well. A district-level program was organized at Vivekananda Sardha Satabarshiki Bhavan in Dharmanagar. The 'Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar Abhiyan' launched by the Prime Minister was also broadcast live in the program in North Tripura district. Health camps were also held. Women were tested and advised for various diseases free of cost in the camps. Free medicines were also provided.

Speaking at the district-level program, Industries Minister Santana Chakma said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi launched this important program to keep women healthy. Through this program, women in villages, hills and cities of our state will be able to go to free medical camps and get health check-ups and get free treatment. She also said that the current government has given utmost importance to the development of women and their empowerment. It may be self-help groups or any other project, the current government is working on how to make women self-reliant.

She said, a self-reliant state and a self-reliant country will be built through the self-reliance of women. A developed India will be built. Prime Minister Narendra Modi is working on the goal of building a developed India by 2047. Work is being done in our state by preparing its outline. For this, a vocal for local policy must be adopted. Local products must be given importance. At today's event, Aparna Nath, President of North Tripura Zilla Parishad, said that women will greatly benefit out of the 'Swasth Nari Sashakt Parivar Abhiyan'.

Speaking at the event, MLA Jadavlal Debnath also spoke on the occasion. Also present at the event today were North Tripura Zilla Parishad Saha Sabhadhipait Bhabatosh Das, Dharmanagar Municipal Council Chairperson Mitali Rani Das Sen, District Magistrate Chandni Chandran, CMO Dr. Deepak Chandra Halder, social worker Kajal Kumar Das, Zilla Parishad member Joyjit Sharma and others.