Clarification of published news

The news published in the Tripura Observer on 20/10/2025 under the caption “Govt. Health supplies allegedly destroyed at Poangbari Block” has come to the notice office of the District Education Officer, South Tripura. In this regard DEO clarified that,

1. No stock of sanitary napkins is pending under the Inspectorate. All sanitary napkins received from the Office of the District Education Officer, South Tripura, have been duly disbursed among the respective schools under Poangbari RD Block as per official guidelines.
2. The claim made in the news report that unused stock was found dumped near the BRC Hall near the Inspector's office is entirely false and baseless. No, such incident has occurred under the jurisdiction of this Inspectorate. The News clip currently circulating on social media platforms is not related to the Office of the Inspector of Schools. Poangbari.
