Inauguration of State-level Hojagiri Festival

The traditional 31st state-level Hojagiri festival was inaugurated by Tribal Welfare Department Minister Bikash Debbarma on 30th October, 2023 at Gandatwisa H.S School ground. Inaugurating the festival, he said that the state government is implementing various schemes for the welfare of the tribal people. Peace and harmony must be maintained for the development of the state. Such festivals strengthen our bond. He urged everyone to take advantage of the various schemes of the state and central government for the welfare of the tribal people. He expressed hope that the message of unity and solidarity between the tribal and non-tribal would spread throughout the state through Hojagiri festival.

The Special Guest of the programme and Minister of Cooperation Department Shukla Charan Noatia said that the overall welfare of the society is possible only through the progress of education. He highlighted the implementation of various schemes of the state government for the development of the people of the state. The Chief Guest of the programme, MP Rebati Mohan Tripura said that various schemes of the Central and State Governments were implemented for the welfare of the state of Tripura, especially for the tribal people.

Exhibition stalls were opened by various departments on the occasion of Hojagiri festival. Interesting cultural programmes were organized. Artistes from different parts of the state performed traditional Hojagiri dance, Jhum dance, traditional folk music and folk dance of Reang community. MLA Nandita Debbarma Reang and BAC Chairman of Dumburnagar Block Prem Sadhan Tripura were present among others at the inaugural programme. Chairman of Bru Socio-cultural Organization Shantirai Reang presided over the programme.
