Tripura “Beti Bachao Beti Padhao” in Gomati District. Women have important contribution in the all spheres of society: Agriculture Minister

Women have important contribution in all spheres of society. Prime Minister Narendra Modi has started the work of women empowerment in the country. Agriculture Minister Pranajit Singha Roy said this while inaugurating the Gomati district-based programme organized by the Department of School Education and Social Education at Rajarshi Hall in Udaipur as part of Tripura “Beti Bachao Beti Padhao” programme. Today, women are also performing the responsibility of running the state. Women today are able to assert themselves in every level of society.

In the event, the Agriculture Minister also said that there are about 34,000 disadvantaged women in the state and the government is working to make them self-reliant. Chairperson of Udaipur Municipal council Shital Chandra Majumdar, Deputy Director of Social Welfare and Social Education Department, Bijan Chakraborty also spoke at the programme. Gomati District Education Officer Laxman Chandra Das gave the welcome speech. The function was chaired by chairperson of Education related standing Committee of the district, Shukla Majumdar. It is to be noted that the guests gave cash, mementos and certificates to 11 students of the district who got the highest marks in the secondary examination in the year 2021 of the district and 11 students who got the highest marks in the higher secondary examination. The award was given to Shreya Modak, second runner-up in the National Art Festival and Manisha Saha, who won the gold medal in the National Yoga Olympiad. Besides this, 28 girls of the district were felicitated for their outstanding contribution in education, culture and sports. Moreover, on behalf of the school education department 18 schools in the district were given the “Swachh Vidyalaya” Award.
