NOTIFICATION

Whereas, the situation has been reviewed in detail by the State Executive Committee (SEC), Tripura Disaster Management Authority (TDMA) under the Chairmanship of Chief Secretary, Tripura and it is noticed that in view of the increasing numbers of covid positive cases, further measures need to be taken for effective control of covid-19. It is felt necessary to issue Advisory/ State directives for covid -19 management and to contain the spread of covid -19.

Now, therefore, following advisory is issued for maintaining covid appropriate behaviour:

1. People should avoid unnecessary movement outside home or workplace. In case of need, movement may take place by following aggressive COVID appropriate behaviour.
2. Fair, Exhibition, Rallies, public meetings etc. may be avoided.
3. Shop owners should ensure social distancing among customers, wearing of masks among customers. Bazaar committees should deploy volunteers to ensure social distancing.
4. Wearing masks/face cover is compulsory in public places, crowded areas, in markets, in all work places and offices and during travelling.
5. Wide and thorough publicity be made on wearing mask/face cover and to maintain Covid Appropriate Behaviour (CAB) through talk-show, miking, print, electronic and social media.
6. Fine may be imposed on the defaulters for not using mask or not maintaining Covid Appropriate Behaviour (CAB).
