

Launch of Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra in Paschim Balaram Panchayat

Central Government working for welfare of everyone: Union Minister of State for Social Justice and Empowerment

The central government is working for the welfare of everyone. Now the benefits of various schemes and services are being delivered to the actual beneficiaries. No recommendation is needed for this. Union Minister of State for Social Justice and Empowerment Pratima Bhowmik said this while inaugurating Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra at Paschim Balaram Panchayat office premises in Ambassa Block yesterday. The Yatra started in Paschim Balaram Panchayat and Baram Village of the block. On the occasion, the Union Minister of State said that women are now more self-reliant through the formation of self-help groups. It has reduced the amount of domestic violence. When women are self-reliant, society has a positive impact. She said that this Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra has been launched to ensure that the benefits of various schemes and services of the Central and State Governments reach every people of the country. Additional District Magistrate Biswajit Pal also spoke on the occasion.

The Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra pledge was recited on the occasion. At the program, 28 people were given income certificates from Ambassa sub-divisional administration stall. Apart from this, applications for ST, SC, OBC certificates are accepted. At the beginning of the program, the Union Minister of State fed sweets to the children during Annaprashan and Godh Vharai ceremony. She visited the stalls of various departments and enquired about the services being provided to the people from these stalls. Sahakari Sabhadhipati of Dhalai Zilla Parishad Anadi Sarkar, Vice Chairman of Ambassa Panchayat Samiti Arun Dev, President of Standing Committee of the Zilla Parishad on Education, Health, Youth Affairs and Sports Mridul Dutta, BDO of Ambassa Block Munmun Debarma and officials of various departments were present among the distinguished guests. Chairman of Balaram Panchayat N Mog presided over the program.