Sipahijala District Holds Workshop to Combat Child Trafficking

A workshop aimed at preventing child trafficking was held yesterday at the district magistrate's office in Sipahijala. Organized jointly by the National Child Rights Protection Commission and the Tripura Child Rights Protection Commission, the event was presided over by Jayanti Debbarma, Chairperson of the Tripura Child Rights Protection Commission. Key attendees included Sonakshi Radhika, Resource Person from the National Child Rights Protection Commission, and Additional District Commissioner Subrata Majumdar. Jayanti Debbarma emphasized the collaborative efforts between the national and state commissions to tackle child trafficking. Assistant Professor Swapan Debbarma from Tripura Law College also addressed the workshop, discussing Child Rights Protection and the POCSO Act.
