

ICA Minister inaugurates blood donation camp in Bishalgarh

Greatest service to humankind can be done through blood donation: ICA Minister

Greatest service to humankind can be done through blood donation. Donating blood is the greatest way to help people, which is why everyone has to come forward to donate blood, stated Information & Cultural Affairs Minister Sushanta Choudhury after inaugurating blood donation camp organized with the initiative of Champamura School Management Committee and Champamura Higher Secondary School at Champamura HS School in Bishalgarh sub-division. The ICA Minister gave medals to two merit students in the program for their outstanding performance in Tripura Board Examination. Apart from that, guests present in the program have planted tree saplings on the occasion.

ICA Minister also said, there had been a lag in organizing blood donation due to Covid-19 situation. That is being fulfilled gradually. Even scientists till date could not find any alternative for blood. Therefore, lives of patients can only be saved when we donate blood. Blood donation does not just save lives, but also benefits doner's body. He said, the students must build themselves into good citizens besides generating compassion for humankind, love for nation and patriotism. One must love their nation as their own mother. Sabhadhipati of Sepahijala Zilla Parishad Supriya Das Dutta as a chief guest and social worker Gouranga Bhowmik as a special guest also spoke on the occasion. Others present were Sepahijala District Education Officer Habul Lodh, social worker Sudhir Choudhury and Chairman of Champamura Higher Secondary School Management Committee Biplab Ghosh. The program was presided over by Champamura Gram Panchayat Pradhan Ashtami Das. Welcome speech was delivered by Headmaster of Champamura Higher Secondary School Samir Choudhury.
