Khowai District Hosts Workshop on Bank Linkage for Self-Help Groups

The Tripura Rural Livelihood Mission's Khowai District Mission Manager's Office organized a workshop yesterday focusing on the National Rural Livelihood Mission and its bank linkage with self-help groups (SHGs). Held at the Khowai District Administration Office, the workshop was attended by bank representatives, bank sakhis, and SHG representatives. Key attendees included Additional District Magistrate Abhijit Chakraborty, National Rural Livelihood Mission Resource Person Tilak Das, Tripura Rural Livelihood Mission official Deepak Chakraborty, and District Coordinator Pritam Chakraborty. Abhijit Chakraborty emphasized the goal of making SHGs self-reliant, with a target to provide loans to 1,580 SHGs in the current fiscal year. Resource person Tilak Das highlighted the crucial role of SHGs in the economic process.
