Transport Minister in the review meeting of Sepahijala district-level Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra
The opportunity of government schemes and services should reach the last person of the society

A review meeting was held yesterday in Sepahijala district on Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra and Prati Ghare Sushason 2.0 campaign. Transport Minister Sushanta Chowdhury presided over the meeting. The Minister of Transport said in the meeting that these two programs have been launched to give the benefits of various schemes and services of the Central and State Governments. The objective of these two programs is to ensure that government schemes and services are accessible to the people. He said that there should be coordination between the representatives of three-tier Panchayat and government officials in the implementation of government schemes. He said that in the first phase of Prati Ghare Sushason campaign, 23 lakh people of the state were provided access to various schemes and services. This year's Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra and Prati Ghare Sushason 2.0 campaign should also reach the maximum number of people with access to government schemes and services.

In the meeting, District Magistrate Nagesh Kumar B elaborated the last 15 days program of Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra and Prati Ghare Sushason 2.0 in the district through PowerPoint presentation. The District Magistrate informed that initiatives have been taken to deliver the benefits of 17 central flagship schemes to the people in every rural and urban area of the district. Besides, people are being made aware about all these flagship schemes.

Sabhadhipati of Sepahijala Zilla Parishad Supriya Das Dutta, Sahakari Sabhadhipati Pintu Aich, MLA Antara Sarkar Deb, MLA Sushanta Deb, MLA Bindu Debnath, Chairman of various Panchayat Samiti and BAC of the district, Superintendent of Police BJ Reddy, Sub-Divisional Magistrate of various sub-divisions of the district and BDOs of different blocks were present in the review meeting.
