MGNREGA Creates Over 50,000 Man days in Karbook Block

The Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (MGNREGA) has made significant strides in Karbook Block, creating a total of 50,552 man days in the current financial year. This substantial achievement has been reported by the Karbook Group Development Office. Under the MGNREGA program, a variety of development projects have been implemented across 22 ADC villages in the block. These projects include the construction of brick-surfaced roads, the creation of new rural roads, and the renovation of old ponds. Additionally, assistance has been provided to beneficiaries for setting up rubber and betel plantations. The implementation of these projects has provided employment to 1,787 families, with an average of 28.29 mandays per family. These initiatives are not only enhancing rural infrastructure but also supporting the livelihoods of many families in Karbook Block. The Karbook Block Development Office has informed this.
