

Government of Tripura
Directorate of Information and Cultural Affairs

S-4308

Agartala, 20th December, 2023

Atal Poetry and Literature Festival to be held in Udaipur on December 25-26: Finance Minister

Atal Poetry and Literature Festival will be held in Udaipur on December 25 and 26. Chief Minister Professor (Dr.) Manik Saha will inaugurate this festival at Udaipur Rajarshi Hall on December 25. Finance Minister Pranajit Singha Roy said this in a press conference at the conference hall of Gomati Zilla Parishad yesterday. In the press conference, the Finance minister said that advisory committee, management committee and 14 sub-committees have already been formed to make Atal poetry and literature festival a success. On the occasion of the festival, a colourful rally will be held in Udaipur on December 24. The rally will start from Jamtala and end at Rajarshi Hall premises via Central Road-Brahmabari. In the press conference, he also said that poets and writers from the North Eastern region and West Bengal will participate in Atal Poetry and Literature Festival. In the press conference, the Finance Minister unveiled a logo in connection with the festival. The Finance Minister sought everyone's cooperation to make this festival a success. In-charge Sabhadhipati of Gomati Zilla Parishad Debal Debroy, Chairperson of Udaipur Municipal Council Shi tal Chandra Majumder, Chairman of Kakraban Panchayat Samiti Supriya Saha, Vice Chairman of State Cultural Advisory Committee Subrata Chakraborty and others were present in the press conference.

A meeting was held yesterday in the conference hall of Gomati Zilla Parishad to make Atal Poetry and Literature Festival a success. The meeting was presided over by Finance Minister Pranajit Singha Roy. In-charge Sabhadhipati of Gomati Zilla Parishad Debal Debroy, MLA Abhishek Debroy, Chairperson of Udaipur Municipal Council Shital Chandra Majumdar, officials of various departments and conveners of various subcommittees were present in the meeting.
