with the vision for the next 25 years: Union Minister of State

The central government is working on a plan for the next 25 years to build a new India. The main goal of the central government is to develop the country and build a better India. For this purpose, the government is working with the goal of developing everyone together. Union Minister of State for Information Technology and Skill Development, Rajeev Chandrasekhar said this while inaugurating the Foundation Day programme of Khowai Municipal council on 11th August, 2022.

At the programme, Union Minister of State, Shri Chandrasekhar said that the opportunities of the government's development programmes are being delivered to the real beneficiaries of the marginal section of the society. PM Awas, PM Kishan, Ayushman Bharat, Mudra Yojana and many other schemes are playing a significant role in building a new India. People from different parts of the country are benefiting from the opportunities from all these projects. At the beginning of the programme, four beneficiaries were given e-rickshaw keys by Khowai Municipal Council, 1 lakh rupees were given to 3 self-help groups, TUEP cards were handed over to 5 beneficiaries of the TUEP project. Union Minister of State and other guests handed over the assistance to the beneficiaries. Moreover, members of the Deen Dayal SHG were felicitated under Swach Bharat Mission at the programme.

After the programme, a review meeting was held in the conference hall of the Khowai District Magistrate's office under the chairmanship of the Union Minister of State. In the review meeting, the Union Minister of State said that the central government has given priority to the socio-economic upliftment of farmers. That is why emphasis has been given on marketing of agricultural products, production of demand based products, organic farming. In the meeting, the Union State Minister directed the officials of the concerned departments to give importance to the production of food grains, fruits and fish in the rural areas. The meeting was attended by Sabhadhipati of Khowai Zilla Parishad Joydeb Debbarma, Secretary of Sports Council Amit Rakshit, District Magistrate L.T Darlong and officials of other departments.
