Inauguration of Tribal Rest House at Kalachara

State government is working on priority for the overall development of tribal people: Chief Minister

The state government is working on priority for the overall development of the tribal. The state government is sincere in protecting the traditional culture of the tribal people. A two-day public holiday has been declared on the occasion of the traditional Garia Puja of the tribal people and Agartala Airport is named after Maharaja Bir Bikram Kishore Manikya. Chief Minister Professor Dr. Manik Saha said this while inaugurating Tribal Rest House at Kalachara in Sabroom on 11th August, 2022.

Chief Minister said that the country is moving forward under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. The Prime Minister is also very sincere in the development of the tribal people. Few days ago, Draupadi Murmu of Odisha's tribal community was elected to the country's highest constitutional post of President which is one of the signs of the prime minister's sincerity towards the tribal people. Tripura's Maharaja Bir Bikram Airport is one of the best airports in the North East. Chief Minister said that the double engine government of Tripura and New Delhi wants the state to move towards further development.

MLA Shankar Roy, Sabhadhipati of South Tripura Zilla Parishad, Kakali Das Dutta, District Magistrate of South Tripura, Saju Vaheed A, South District Superintendent of Police, Dr. Kulwant Singh, Sabroom Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Debdas Debbarma and others were present at the inaugural programme. The two-storied Tribal Rest House has been constructed at a cost of 1 crore 39 lakh rupees.

Chief Minister Prof. Dr. Manik Saha also inaugurated the science building of Jalefa H.S School in the afternoon on 11th August, 2022. MLA Shankar Roy and local public representatives were present at the inauguration programme. In his inaugural speech, the Chief Minister said that the state government is working sincerely for the welfare of women. The government is always active in the protection of mothers and sisters. A helpline number for the protection of women will be launched soon. In case of emergency, women can get help anytime by calling 1091. Chief Minister said that the present government has taken special initiatives for the overall development of the state.

On the occasion of the 75th anniversary of the country's independence, Chief Minister responded to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's call to make the Har Ghar Tiranga campaign a success as part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. He urged everyone to hoist the national flag from August 13 to 15. Chief Minister said that patriotism and national consciousness will be strengthened. School students are very excited to have got the newly constructed science building at Jalefa School. From now onwards, students will get the opportunity to study science in the school near their home itself.
