

Newly built Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherji
Market Stall inaugurated at Mohanpur Bazar

Different plans are being implemented for the development of Mohanpur market area: Education Minister

OBC Welfare Minister Ramprasad Pal has inaugurated newly built Dr. Shyamaprasad Mukherji Market Stall yesterday at Mohanpur Bazar. Education Minister Ratan Lal Nath was present in the inaugural programme as the Chief Guest. There he elaborately spoke on different plans of the state government taken for the development of Mohanpur market area. He said, the state government aims at achieving Sabka Sath, Sabka Vikas. Different plans are being implemented for the development of Mohanpur market area. The market stall was also part of the plan. He said, two market will be set up with the initiative of Agriculture & Farmers' Welfare department at Mohanpur market at the cost of 3 crore rupees. A market shed already has been constructed at the market at the cost of 32 lakh rupees. Brailey bridge is being constructed nearby market at the cost of 2 crore rupees. Modern Town Hall is being constructed at Airan Chowmuhni. A tertiary waste treatment plant is being constructed in Mohanpur.

The Education Minister said, a branch of Cultural University is being constructed at Tulabagan at the cost of 90 crore rupees. The state government has taken initiatives to ensure income in every household. The Education Minister hoped that the market stall will be fruitful for the businessmen and sellers and help them become self-dependent.

Inaugurating the market stall, OBC Welfare Minister Ramprasad Pal said, the newly built market stall will benefit huge number of businessmen. The market stall will have three floors in future. The market stall is a dream come true for the residents of Mohanpur area. He also mentioned about different development programmes of the OBC Welfare department. Former President of Mohanpur Bazar Committee Arabinda Deb also spoke on the occasion. Other dignitaries present in the inaugural programme were Chairperson of Mohanpur Municipal Council Anita Debnath and Vice Chairman Sankar Deb, Chairman of Mohanpur Panchayat Samiti Reena Debbarma and Vice Chairman Rakesh Deb, Director of OBC Welfare department Kuntal Das and Mohanpur SDM Anirudha Roy.

Welcome speech was delivered by Secretary of OBC Welfare department Tapas Roy. The programme was presided over by Secretary of Mohanpur Bazar Committee Dipak Bhattacharjee. The guests handed over stall keys to 10 businessmen at the end of the programme. It is to be noted that the market stall has been built at the cost of 2 crore 37 lakh rupees with the initiative of OBC Welfare department. There are total 45 stalls in the market.