

State-level birth anniversary celebration of Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Government is committed towards delivering every kind of services till the last person in the society: CM

If we can apply the life principles of Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya who is himself a symbol of integral humanism, in our lives then we would be paying tribute to him in real sense. With integral humanism, the government is giving priority to improving quality of living of the people through delivering all kinds of services till the last person in the society, enunciated Chief Minister Biplab Kumar Deb in state-level birth anniversary celebration of Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya organised by Information and Cultural Affairs department at Geetanjali Hall, Ranirbazar on September 25. The Chief Minister and other guests paid tribute to Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya's portrait with flowers.

Chief Minister advised not to compromise on the ancient Indian cultural values with any wrongdoings. He also said, priority and importance were given to the promotion of a different mentality in the state. Though the country was free from foreign rule, India's own culture and traditions were about to be lost due to those who had a fixed kind of mentality. After the establishment of the present government, overall development of the people of all sections is being brought about by ending the political interference in the lives of the people. The government is committed to rise above party bias and extend all kinds of services till last person in the society. As a result, very recently 1 lakh 59 thousand pucca houses were planned for beneficiaries through Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana without any political bias. Process is going on for getting more 70 thousand houses. All the beneficiaries will get housing through Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana which is an embodiment of the Sabka Sath Sabka Vikas policy of the Prime Minister.

Chief Minister said, just recently Tripura has set a benchmark in COVID vaccination but for health safety of children below 18 years, Mukhyamantri Sustho Shoishob, Sustho Koishor scheme has been launched. To control water-borne diseases, government has taken target to provide clean drinking water to every house by December 2022. Various steps have been taken to speed up the work. Providing civic services is one of the prioritised fields of government.

Presiding over the programme ICA Minister Sushanta Choudhury said, there are some great personalities in history who will always remain alive. Their ideals and thoughts inspire us. We always feel their need. He said, Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya is one of the prominent national heroes of India. His ideologies are similar to that of Mahatma Gandhi. He has tried to inspire India about the greatness of Indian tradition. Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyaya's integral humanism has far-reaching implications. ICA Minister said, there are many doctrines in the world, but we must have faith in the doctrine that will shape the present and future of the country. Prime Minister Narendra Modi is running the country based on Pandit Deendayal's integral humanism and showcased our culture on foreign platforms. Dr. Arvind Mahato, Assistant Professor, Tripura Central University said, Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya embodied the ideology of India through integral humanism. Development of India is not possible through capitalism or Marxism. Integral humanism is the only way for development of Indian society. Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya's integral humanism is the cornerstone of the recent new national education policy in India. ICA director Ratan Biswas in his welcome speech said, the ICA department is working to bring the doctrines of the country's intellectuals to every person in the state. A tribute ceremony is being organized on the birth anniversary of the scholars. Others present in the programme were Vice Chairman of the State Cultural Advisory Committee Subhash Deb, SDM of Jirania subdivision Jiban Krishna Acharjee, and noted social activist Gouranga Bhowmik.
