SW&SE Minister attends 3rd year anniversary of West Tripura Zilla Parishad

The government is working for the overall welfare of the Divyangjans: SW&SE Minister

Every Divyangjan is a holder of some special talent. They also can be well established in the society if they are properly taken care of. Each of our responsibility is to extend our hand to help them cultivate their talent, enunciated Social Welfare & Social Education Minister Santana Chakma at the felicitation programme of Divyangjan students at the 3rd year anniversary programme of West Tripura Zilla Parishad organized at the conference hall of West Tripura District Magistrate's office. SW&SE Welfare Minister expressed gratitude to West Tripura Zilla Parishad for that.

SW&SE Minister said, both the central and the state government are working for the overall welfare of the Divyangjans. More schemes will be considered for their progress in the future. Special service based arrangements have been made for convenient movement of the Divyangjans in government institutions of the state at present. The central government has arranged 'One nation, One Certificate' to provide more services and facilities to the Divyangjans throughout the country. Certificates are being provided in Tripura along with the other states of the country. She said, everyone has to pay attention so that no Divyangjan of the society is left behind. She said, Divyangjans have the right to live with equal dignity and attain education. She called on everyone to extend their hands towards developing their talents with love and care instead of neglecting them. They need to be motivated to do something in their lives. She called on everyone to come forward to build addiction free Tripura.

Sabhadhipati of West Tripura Zilla Parishad Antara Sarkar Deb expressed her joy in getting the opportunity to do something for the Divyangjans being the Sabhadhipati of the Zilla Parishad. She said, West Tripura Zilla Parishad has been awarded with 'Deen Dayal Upadhyay Panchayat Sashaktikaran Puraskar' thrice in three consecutive years for different developmental works and for cleanliness. With the funds of this award, the Zilla Parishad has been working for the Divyangjans in different ways as well as implementing different schemes for rural development. She said, West Tripura Zilla Parishad will continue working for the welfare of poor section of the society. Sahakari Sabhadhipati of West Tripura Zilla Parishad Haridulal Acharya, West Tripura DM Debapriya Bardhan, West Tripura official of SW&SE department Dr. Chandrani Biswas and Secretary of Agartala Abhay Mission Sushmita Dey also spoke on the occasion. Welcome speech was delivered by Secretary of the Zilla Parishad Debashish Das. Vote of Thanks was delivered by District Panchayat official Subrata Dutta. West Tripura ADM Asim Saha and Rajib Dutta were present during the programme. The programme was followed by cultural performances by the students of Narsingarh Blind Divyangjan School. 30 meritorious Divyangjan students were felicitated and awarded by the guests including SW&SE Minister Santana Chakma.
