Preparatory meeting held for Durga Puja festival at Chailengta

A preparatory meeting with SDM, concerned officials and representatives of different local clubs and NGOs was held for Durga Puja festival in the conference hall of Longtharai valley SDM office at Chailengta on 29th September 2021. The main highlights of the meeting were to ensure Covid safety protocols, to maintain peaceful environment during the festival and to ensure compliance of guidelines issued by Tripura State Disaster Management Authority. The SDM in the meeting requested everyone to cooperate and urged all the stakeholders and Puja committees of different clubs and organisations to responsibly follow administration's mode of conduct to maintain peaceful environment during the period of the festival. Other important details like power connection, road clearance, barricade, security arrangements etc were also discussed in the meeting.
