CM joined Pariksha Pe Charcha program

Prime Minister's wise words are worth following to achieve success in life: CM

Prime Minister Narendra Modi interacted with students, teachers and guardians in 5th edition of 'Pariksha Pe Charcha' at Talkotra Stadium in New Delhi today. Prior to the interaction session, the Prime Minister looked around the exhibition presented by the students during the program. Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan was present in the program too. This year, besides the Indian students, Non-Resident Indian students also joined 'Pariksha Pe Charcha' program. Chief Minister Biplab Kumar Deb joined the program through virtual mode from Maharani Tulsibati Higher Secondary School today. Education Minister Ratan Lal Nath, Secretary of Education department Brijesh Pandey, Director of School Education Chandni Chandran, high-ranking officials of the department, Headmaster, teachers and students of Maharani Tulsibati Higher Secondary School also joined the program.

While speaking to media after the program, the Chief Minister said, Prime Minister's wise words are worth following to achieve success in life. He hoped that Prime Minister's answers to the questions asked by the students will also help the teachers, guardians and the students in life. He said, the present state government is working under the guidance of Prime Minister. More than 2 lakh students from Tripura joined the program today and heard the live interaction session.

While replying to media about AFSPA, the Chief Minister said, at present the northeastern states are peaceful and are gradually heading towards development. He thanked the Prime Minister and Home Minister on declaring withdrawal of AFSPA from few areas of 3 northeastern states.
