Tripura Rural Livelihood Mission
Holds District-Level Discussions in Khowai

The Khowai District Branch of the Tripura Rural Livelihood Mission (TRLM) concluded a two-day district-level discussion on the mission's annual plan and its implementation yesterday. Key officials, including District Magistrate and Collector Chandani Chandran, Additional District Magistrate Abhijit Chakraborty, TRLM State Coordinator Kanika Debbarma, and Block Development Officers (BDOs) from various blocks, participated in the discussions. District Magistrate Chandani Chandran emphasized the crucial role of the TRLM in enhancing the livelihood and socio-economic development of rural communities. The mission focuses on empowering rural women through self-help groups (SHGs), fostering self-reliance. TRLM District Coordinator Pritam Majumder presented a comprehensive overview of the mission's initiatives, highlighting the significance of agriculture, horticulture, fisheries, forestry, and animal rearing in livelihood programs. Discussions also covered non-agricultural projects, micro-enterprise development, SHG formation, and the creation of cluster-level federations.
