Inauguration of newly constructed two storey Veterinary Hospital at Boxanagar

Veterinary mobile vans will be launched to improve health services for animal in the state: ARDD Minister

Animal husbandry plays an important role in improving the socio-economic status of rural people. The government has given utmost importance to agriculture and allied sectors. ARDD Minister Bhagaban Chandra Das said this while inaugurating the newly constructed two-storied building of Veterinary Hospital at Boxanagar yesterday. At the programme, he said that the government has taken several steps to improve animal health services in the state. Veterinary hospitals are being set up in different areas of the state at a cost of 90 crore rupees.

ARDD Minister also said that veterinary mobile vans will be launched for the development of animal health services in the state. Mukhyamantri Unnat Godhan Scheme is being successfully implemented in the state. He urged the people of rural areas to come forward to become self-reliant in animal husbandry. Supriya Das Dutta, Sabhadhipati of Sepahijala Zilla Parishad, was present at the programme. Boxanagar Panchayat Samiti Chairman Sanjay Sarkar presided over the programme. Additional Director of Animal Resource Development Department, Sepahijala District, Dr. Bimal Krishna Das gave the welcome speech.
