Online smart class launched
Under Beti Bachao Beti Padhao
Scheme in North Tripura

In a significant educational initiative under the Beti Bachao Beti Padhao scheme an online smart class program has been launched in the North Tripura district for girls in classes IX to XII. This joint effort by the North Tripura District Administration and Education Department aims to enhance learning opportunities for female students. The inauguration took place in the District Magistrate's office with District Magistrate and Collector Debapriya Bardhan presiding over the event. Notable attendees included District Education Officer Sukhmoy Nath, District Social Welfare and Social Education Officer Prasenjit Debbarma and Joint Director of the District Information and Cultural Office Dilip Kumar Debbarma along with school headmaster and teachers. During the ceremony, Debapriya Bardhan emphasized the additional learning opportunities provided by the smart class format. Sukhomoy Nath delivered the welcome address highlighting the initial participation of students from class 9 and 10 of nine schools in the smart classes. On the occasion, District Magistrate interacted with the teachers associated with smart class.
