

Launch of “Prati Ghare Sushason” campaign in the state

Government to fulfil the hopes and dreams of the Prime Minister by increasing social pension to 2000 rupees: CM

In various social pension schemes of the state government, the pension has been increased from 1000 rupees to 2000 rupees. It will be effective from this September. Chief Minister Prof. (Dr.) Manik Saha made this announcement at the official launch of “Prati Ghare Sushason” campaign organized in Hall No. 1 of Rabindra Bhawan in Agartala on 17th September, 2022. In the inaugural programme, the Chief Minister along with other guests launched the Bengali and Kokborok campaign song, a booklet in Bengali, Kokborok and English language, Prati Ghare Sushason campaign dashboard. A documentary film outlining the campaign was screened at the programme. In the inaugural programme, the Chief Minister virtually inaugurated the 24-hour health services of North Maharanipur Primary Health Centre.

Speaking at the programme, the Chief Minister said that September 17 is the birthday of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. To commemorate Prime Minister's birthday, Prati Ghare Sushason campaign was launched on that day. This campaign will continue till November 30. He said, not only words, the present state government believes in action. Under the direction and guidance of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the state government has taken up this campaign programme to bring good governance in every household of the state. The state government is continuously striving for public welfare to fulfil the beliefs, hopes and dreams of Prime Minister. The government is determined to deliver different schemes of the central and state governments to improve the socio-economic conditions of the people. He said that Sabka Sath, Sabka Vikas and Sabka Biswas are being reflected through the successful implementation of various development programmes formulated by the Centre and the State Governments for the welfare of the people. Chief Minister said that various flagship schemes of the Central and State Governments have been implemented successfully. To complete the remaining works by next November, Prati Ghare Sushason campaign has been taken up. The inaugural programme was telecast live on 17th September, 2022 at different district headquarters, sub-divisions and blocks of the state.

Chief Minister said that no state or society can develop without the support of the people. Chief Minister highlighted in detail regarding the projects being implemented in the state and the flagship schemes of the Central Government. In this regard, he sought cooperation from the people of the state for the successful implementation of these schemes.

Deputy Chief Minister Jishnu Dev Varma while explaining the significance of organizing the programme said that on August 15, 1947, the country got Swaraj. Su-Raj literally means good governance now. The main task of the government is to touch the lives of every person through su-raj. And the central and state governments are working in that direction. On the occasion of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's 72nd birthday, Prati Ghare Sushason campaign has started in the state because Prime Minister taught to work for the people with full commitment. Deputy Chief Minister also said that Tripura is the first in the country where Aspirational Blocks have been announced to accelerate development, using micro-grids, building bio villages and working towards socio-economic development of people. Trust in state governments can improve only when society and government work hand in hand. That is why the state has been awarded at various levels in for its work in rural development, agriculture, and panchayat by the central government. What work has been done by the government for the development of the people of the state will be presented through the report card after the end of the Prati Ghare Sushason campaign. At the programme, Deputy Chief Minister inaugurated virtually the solar street light of rural market of Ratanpur Village Committee under Padmabil Block.

Information and Cultural Affairs Minister Sushanta Chowdhury said that through this campaign, an outline of where we were before, where we are now and where we will go will be revealed to the people of the state. The message of this programme will be conveyed to every household in the state so that the eligible beneficiaries are not excluded from any scheme of the central and state government. He said that the main objective of a development-oriented and people-oriented government is to involve every person in the developmental programme of the state. Under the direction of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, development is flowing in different directions in each state of the North Eastern region. This government is working for every people of the state by providing nearly 3 lakh paved houses in the state through Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana rural and urban projects, providing drinking water to 54 percent houses, providing free ration and vaccinations during the covid pandemic. He thanked the central government for sanctioning another 166 crore rupees for Jal Jeevan Mission. Chief Secretary J.K Sinha, Director General of Police Amitabh Ranjan, Information and Cultural Affairs Department Secretary Pradeep Kumar Chakraborty also spoke at the programme. Mayor of Agartala Municipal Corporation Dipak Majumder, corporators, secretaries of different departments, officers, officials, beneficiaries of various projects were present at the programme.
