

Distribution of walking aids and other support appliances to divyangjans in Sepahijala as part of Prati Ghare Sushason campaign

One of the priority areas of the government is to bring the opportunities of government schemes to the people: Jail Minister

Prati Ghare Sushason has been launched to reach the last person of the state to get benefit of government schemes and services. One of the priority areas of the government is to bring the opportunities of government schemes to the people. Jail Minister Ramprasad Paul said this while inaugurating the district-level distribution programme of walking aids and certificates among the Divyangjans at the multipurpose hall of Bishramganj yesterday. Supriya Das Dutta, Sabhadhipati of Sepahijla Zilla Parishad presided over the programme. Tripura Industrial Development Corporation Chairman Tinku Roy, Additional District Magistrate Subhashis Bandyopadhyay, social worker like Jharna Debbarma, Debabrata Bhattacharya and Gauranga Bhowmik were present at the programme. At the programme 10 divyangjans of the district were given mobility equipment and 2 divyangjans were given certificates.

*****