12th World Pharmacists' Day Celebration

Doctors and nurses as well as other collaborators play an important role in medical services: Chief Minister

Pharmacists are in no way inferior to any other medical fraternity. Physicians, nurses, and other allied health care professionals play an important role in taking care of patient. Chief Minister Professor (Dr.) ManikSaha said this while inaugurating the 12th World Pharmacists Day celebrations organized by Regional Institute of Pharmaceutical Science and Technology (RIPSAT)yesterday. At the programme, Chief Minister encouraged the blood donors by attending the Voluntary Blood Donation Camp organized as part of World Pharmacists Day.

Chief Minister Professor (Dr.) ManikSaha said that this year's theme of World Pharmacists Day is 'Pharmacy United in Action for a Healthier World'. Chief Minister said that in RIPSAT, apart from Tripura, students from other states come to the state to study in differentpharmacy courses. Earlier students of the state had to go abroad to pursue different courses in pharmacy. Chief Minister said immediate steps would be taken to fill up the necessary faculty and other vacant posts in RIPSAT. He also mentioned about the skills of students and the role of teachers in their full development. Chief Minister expressed hope that RIPSAT students in the state will be established in various fields in the coming days and will make the state proud.

Secretary of Health and Family Welfare Department Debashis Basu, Director of Medical Education Professor Chinmoy Biswas, Director of Health Department Dr. Subhashis Debbarma, Principal of Al Amin College of Pharmacy, Bangalore Prof. Md. Salahuddin were present at the programme. Principal of RIPSAT Prof. (Dr.) Shubho Kanta Das, delivered the welcome address at the programme.
