Purchase of Paddy at MSP Begins in Boxanagar

The purchase of paddy from farmers at the Minimum Support Price (MSP) commenced on June 29 at the Boxanagar New Motor Stand premises. The event was attended by MLA Tafazzal Hossain, Chairman of Boxanagar Panchayat Samiti Sanjay Sarkar, and other dignitaries. The paddy procurement center will operate until July 3, offering farmers an opportunity to sell their produce at the MSP. On the first day June 29, the center successfully purchased 100 metric tons (MT) of paddy. This initiative, organized by the Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs, and the Department of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, ensures that paddy is being purchased at the rate of Rs 21.83 per kg.
