

Prati Ghare Sushason
District level fifth Rashtriya Poshan Maah at west Tripura Healthy and strong human resources are capable of building a self-reliant Tripura: Social Welfare Minister

A workshop on district-level fifth Rashtriya Poshan Maah and Nesha mukt Bharat campaign was held yesterday at Muktdhara Auditorium in Agartala as part of Prati Ghare Sushason campaign. Social Welfare and Social Education Minister Santana Chakma inaugurated the workshop. Inaugurating the workshop, Social Welfare Minister Mrs. Chakma said that life is a priceless resource. We have to think about how we will stay healthy and strong in the future. Healthy and strong human resources are capable of building a self-reliant Tripura. In the workshop, the Social Welfare Minister also said that the central government has taken various schemes to build a drug-free India and eliminate malnutrition from the country. Central schemes are also being implemented in our state. She said Rashtriya Poshan Maah is one of the steps in eradicating malnutrition.

Sabhadipati of West Tripura Zilla Parishad Antara Sarkar Deb, Secretary of Health Department Dr. Debashis Basu, Social Welfare and Social Education Department Secretary Abhishek Singh and West Tripura District Superintendent of Police Shankar Debnath spoke at the programme. Welcome speech was given by the District Inspector of West Tripura District of Social Welfare and Social Education Department, Chandrani Biswas

A video on Nesha Mukt Bharat Abhiyan was screened at the programme. Minister of Social Welfare and Social Education handed over a check of 5000 rupees under the Pradhan Mantri Matru Bandana Yojana and a cheque of 2000 rupees under the Mukhyamantri Matru Pusthi uphaar scheme to the two beneficiaries. Anganwadi workers displayed home-made nutritious food for children at the programme.
