President of India visits Durgabari tea garden

The President of India Droupadi Murmu had visited Durgabari tea garden and tea processing factory at Bamutia during her two-day visit to Tripura yesterday. Accompanying the President of India on this visit was Chief Minister Prof. (Dr.) Manik Saha. The President was warmly welcomed on her visit at Durgabari tea garden. There the President interacted with the tea garden workers. During her visit to the tea garden and tea processing centre, the President got acquainted about how the tea garden workers are receiving the benefits of different schemes of the central government and under Mukhyamantri Cha Shramik Kalyan Prakalp of the state government. The tea garden workers expressed their happiness on getting benefits from central and state government schemes and expressed their delight on the President's arrival. MLA Krishnadhan Das and Chairman of Tripura Tea Development Corporation Limited Santosh Saha were present there. It is to be noted that Durgabari tea garden is being managed by TTDC.
