e-SHRAM registrations are underway in Longtharai valley

An urgent joint meeting of both Manu and Chawmanu RD Block to prepare for maximum e-SHRAM registration under Longtharai Valley zone was held in the office premise of Manu RD Block on 12th November. The meeting was initiated by the Manu Block Development Officer Parimal Majumder in presence of Labour Officer In-charge of Dhalai District Labour Office, Jawaharnagar Partha Biswas and Dhalai District Manager of CSC, Ambassa Debojit Sharma. Gram Rojgar Sevak (GRS) of various village councils of 45 Village Committees of both the RD Blocks under Longtharai Valley sub-division and other field functionaries of Labour office were present too. During the meeting, issues discussed were targetting 36,878 registrations under Manu RD Block and 20,438 in Chawmanu RD Block enrolling MGNREGA workers as well as providing CSC User ID and password for all GRS of both the RD Blocks. A decision was made that all the GRS of 45 Village Committees shall be fundamentally trained and equipped so as to diligently operate the CSC ID. It was also discussed to encourage and counsel all the eligible workers of different unorganised sectors to be enrolled in the e-SHRAM portal within the stipulated time.

A mega camp shall be held on 14th November at Manughat Vehicle Syndicate, Manu under Longtharai Valley to cover maximum unorganised workers particularly vehicle drivers of the rural areas. This information was collected from the Labour Inspectorate Office, Manu, Longtharai Valley.
