Agartala Hosts Workshop on 'E-Mulaqat' Web Portal

A workshop focusing on the various programs of the 'E-Mulaqat' web portal was organized yesterday in Agartala by the Prison Department. The event, held at the government guest house, was inaugurated by Jail Minister Santana Chakma. The 'E-Mulaqat' web portal is designed to facilitate virtual meetings between prison inmates and their family members via video conferencing. In her inaugural address, Minister Chakma highlighted the benefits of the web portal, emphasizing that its full operational status would save both time and money for inmates and their families. She expressed hope that the initiative would be successful with the cooperation of the workshop participants. IG Prisons Subhasish Das, speaking at the workshop, noted that the 'E-Mulaqat' web portal would be implemented across all 12 prisons in the state. He also pointed out that the initiative enhances prison security. The workshop was attended by officials from the National Informatics Centre (NIC) and officials from different prisons of the state.
