Vikas camps in different wards of Agartala Municipal Corporation

A special Vikas camp was held yesterday in Ward No. 22 under the initiative of Agartala Municipal Corporation. Beneficiaries from eight wards of central zone of Agartala Municipal Corporation participated in the camp. Different services were provided including increasing public awareness about different schemes and services of Central Government and State Government. Through the camp, street vendors in the city were given trade licenses and revenue collection was done. A new holding card was issued and the name of the holding was changed. Different services were provided to the beneficiaries in the camp from Power Department, Urban Livelihood Mission, DWS, PWD and Co-operative Department. On the other hand, different services were provided to the beneficiaries of eight wards of South Zone through a similar camp in Ward No. 33.

Moreover, Mayor Deepak Majumdar inaugurated the Vikas camp held at the North Zonal Office Complex of Agartala Municipal Corporation. Inaugurating the Vikas camp, Mayor Shri Majumdar said that different schemes and services of the Central and State Governments are being delivered to the citizens as part of Prati Ghare Sushason. In the camp, different services were provided to the citizens of Ward No. 5 to 8 and 11 of Agartala Municipal Corporation. Yesterday, Vikas camp was also held in the premises of Ward No. 25 of Agartala Municipal Corporation. Mayor of Agartala Municipal Corporation Deepak Majumdar along with concerned ward councilors and officials of different departments were present in the camp.
