

Government of Tripura
Directorate of Information and Cultural Affairs

S-6661
Agartala, 19th October, 2022

Prati Ghare Sushason campaign
District-level review meeting at Unakoti district

A review meeting was held yesterday at Kumarghat Panchayati Raj Training Institute on the progress of Prati Ghare Sushason campaign. Abhishek Chandra, Special Secretary to the State Government, Uttam Kumar Chakma, District Magistrate of Unakoti district, S. Darlong, Additional District Magistrate, Kumarghat and Kailasahar Sub-Divisional Magistrates, BDOs of Kumarghat, Pecharthal, Gournagar and Chandipur blocks, officials of different banks and district level officials of different departments were present in the review meeting.

In the review meeting, Special Secretary Abhishek Chandra directed the officials of different banks to speed up the work of sanctioning loans for PMEGP and Swabalamban schemes. He said that Unakoti district is the smallest district in the state. Implementation of development programmes in this district is very easy. He emphasised on the proper implementation of the Prati Ghare Sushason campaign in the district. In the meeting, District Magistrate Uttam Kumar Chakma said that attendance of different department officials is assured in Prati Ghare Sushason camps at gram panchayat and village level. Additional District Magistrate S. Darlong elaborated the progress of Prati Ghare Sushason campaign in Unakoti district through power point presentation.
