Tribal Welfare Minister visited under construction
Eklavya Model Residential School at Karbook

Tribal Welfare Minister Rampada Jamatia visited the under construction Eklavya Model Residential School at Karbook yesterday. Additional District Magistrate of Gomati District Pankaj Chakraborty, Sub-Divisional Magistrate Partha Das, BDO of Karbook David Halam and others were present along with Minister Shri Jamatia during the visit. While visiting the school, Tribal Welfare Minister laid emphasis on completing the unfinished work of the school by November. After the visit, Tribal Welfare Mr. Jamatia said that initiatives have been taken to start this school from the next academic year. He said that the government has given priority to the overall development of the tribal people. Note that the construction cost of this Eklavya Model Residential School has been estimated to be 24 crores rupees. The school will have 120 bedded separate hostels for male and female students. Later, the Minister held a review meeting with the officials of different departments in the conference hall of Karbook Sub-Divisional Magistrate office on the development programmes in the sub-division.
